Greger, Betty

Mom, we can hear your voice, strong, distinct, confident, supporting as it always was. It will continue to guide us through the journey you and Dad completed. Your faith was professed loudly, continually, to the end. Our Father who art in heaven...take your good and faithful servant Betty, into your loving arms. Lead her to paradise. Your survivors, your five children, Patty, Paul (Maribeth), Larry, Mary Kay (Chuck), and Tom (Laura) your grandchildren and great grandchildren, your sister Eleanor and brother-in-law Jim will miss you terribly, but know, that into Dad's loving arms you went, job well done. Rest in peace. Farewell. Until we meet again. “ To Betty and Bill's kids

Dad always got a kick out of sharing recipes with your Mom. When he got sick, your Mom and Dad were so helpful to him, and us--his kids, that we took to referring to them as St. Betty and St. Bill. Now they really are saints, with our folks and all the other Second Saturday group. We grieve at your loss.

“ Love to the whole family. Betty helped me so much when my dad was ill. She also helped him so much. We will keep both their spirits alive in our actions.

“ Bettys' children,

Earth has lost a truly remarkable woman but heaven has gained a truly remarkable soul. Betty was not only a consummate wife and mother who lived and taught untainted morals and values but as a devout Catholic lived her religion impeccably on a daily basis. You children that she and Bill produced won the lottery in parenting.

As the flower girl at their wedding 70 years ago I will forever relish the years that followed and our get-togethers that were filled with good times and lots of laughter.

From Bettys' dry sense of humor, to her Fargo hat, to her beloved chicken dance will remain in my memories and she especially in my heart until my last breath.

Heartfelt sympathies,
