“ So sorry to learn the passing of Jack. Jack was one of the nicest, kindest and religious individuals I have ever had the pleasure or knowing. I was fortunate to be a co-worker and partner with Jack at Pottinger Insurance. Condolences to Mary Jo and the entire Thoma family. Our thoughts and prayers are with the Thoma family during this difficult time. God bless Jack, Mary Jo and family. Ed and Theresa Gallagher

“ It broke my heart when I heard that Jack passed. I met him as a Realtor and over time he became a friend, mentor and sometimes a father. He never hesitated to tell me what was what but in a kind and gentle way. He was always at the end of the phone when I called and always ready to talk me through any situation. He and his family were right beside me with the passing of both my parents. I grew to love him and his family like my own. He taught me much in the Real Estate world and in my personal life. He supported many charities and had a good heart and never ceased to reach out to others in need. The main love of his life was Mary Jo and his sons and grandchildren. They are all in my prayers. Heaven did gain a true angel with his passing.
