

Joseph M. Beyerle

October 26, 1930 - January 5, 2019

Joseph Mathew Beyerle - 10/26/1930 to 01/05/2019

Joe was born in Cincinnati to Joseph and Apolonia (Zaharias) Beyerle on October 26, 1930. Growing up in Northside and Westwood he had fond memories of St. Patrick School, working for the Westwood YMCA and being a proud 1948 graduate of Elder High School. He served in the U.S. Marine Corps as a sergeant at Camp Pendleton from 1951-53.

He was married to the love of his life, Joan Mae Beck in 1951. Their 67 year marriage was blessed with five children, thirteen grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. They traveled throughout the United States and Europe, but their greatest joys were at family celebrations. His wife and family were his most prized gift. He will always be known for his "laugh". He could light up any event with his laughter and appreciated how it could bond people together.

He was a charter member of St. Charles Parish. He was instrumental in establishing the school's initial CYO program. Joe was co-founder of Centerville Insurance Agency in 1972. His common statement was, "I am an agent for the CIA." An active member of the Centerville community, Joe was very involved with the growth and popularity of the Americana Festival. In 1996 he was the Grand Marshall of the parade. He coached baseball for the Washington Township Little League and sponsored Centerville High School's Summer League Teams. He loved being Santa Claus for the city of Centerville for many years. He officiated high school football from 1960-1990 and was named to the OHSAA Officials Hall of Fame in 1996. He was a founding board member of the Miami Valley Football Coaches Association in 1973 and played a major role in establishing the Dayton area High School All-star Football Game. His proudest moment was originating the Dayton Area Family Rosary Rally in 2005 with Bob O'Connor. Unofficially, he was known as the "Mayor of Hyde Park Drive", his residence of 56 years. Joe belonged to the St. Charles Knights of Columbus and to the Dayton Agonis Club.

A man of strong faith and devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary, his enthusiasm, common sense, outgoing personality, love of people, and get things done attitude will long be remembered.

He was preceded in death by his parents, his in-laws, Roman and Helen Beck, Thomas and Mary Helen Fehring and his daughter in-law, Cindy Beyerle.

He is survived by children, Paul (Mary), Dave (Elleen), Cathy Southam (Richard), Pete (Heather), Jim (Melanie); grandchildren- Jessica Miller, Courtney Harris, Ross Beyerle, Dan Southam, Jordan Richardson, Patrick Beyerle, David Southam, Taylor Mackell, Emily Beyerle, Alex Beyerle, Matthew Beyerle, Luke Beyerle, Peyton Beyerle, and great-grandchildren- Brooke Miller, Roxanne Marshall, Rosemary & Nora Mackell, Paxton Richardson. He is also survived by in-law's Tony and Carol Seiwert, many nephews and nieces, friends and his church family. “ Dear Joan and family,
Joe was such a special guy. Anytime you bumped into him your day got a little brighter. He gave selflessly to our community and always sent newspaper clippings to area kids noting their accomplishments. He had a zest for life, a smile for all whom he encountered and a laugh that we will never forget. Our condolences to the Beyerle family.

“ Voller Dankbarkeit nehmen wir Abschied von Joseph.
In einer Zeit, in der es uns sehr schlecht ging, hat er uns geholfen, ja man kann sagen: er hat uns gerettet.
Gott möge ihm all das Gute anrechnen, dass er getan hat.

We are so sorry to hear of your dads passing. Reading all about him and how many lives he's touched over the years makes us wish we had met him.
May you find comfort that he is resting in Peace in heaven watching over all his family.

“ Joe was larger than life and oh so special. I will miss him and, of course, "The Laugh".
Apropos of that, several years ago we were watching a play at the Victoria when, all of a sudden, we heard this resounding laugh. We looked at each other, smiled and said "Joe's here".
He will be missed by many.
Love, prayers to all the family.

“ What a great guy. Joe and I had never met before. Yet he came over and sat beside me at George Mousaian's memorial reception. As though we had known each other for decades, we communicated as forever friends just catching up. Not for a moment was he lost for words. Joe directed the conversation that flowed like a river. We recognized each other as friends instantly. Though it was only a few minutes with him, it was memorable. It was like a lifetime of knowing him. That was the magic Joe brought with him everywhere, I'm sure. Such a gift he had, and was. Such a gift he contributed.

“ Last time I saw Mr. Beyerle I asked him if he and Joan could be our Mom & Dad since we didn't have any and of course he laughed and said sure. Such a kind man, he will be sorely missed by all who were fortunate to have know him.
See you in Heaven, save me a place!

“ Joe was also one more thing... a landlord! Many fond memories of visiting the house that Pete lived in on Stewart Street while at UD, and every once in awhile Joe would walk in with that big grin and pick on us, making sure our college days were enjoyable in addition to educational. Fond memories of a great man, will surely be missed. Even though I'm smiling as I write this thinking about Joe, I know it's tough to lose a great man like him.
Our thoughts are with you all!

God Bless,

“ Joe was a great Husband, Father and Mentor to many. We are so sorry for your loss but the GOOD memories are unending.

I'll bet he's in heaven talking to Joe Nuxhall now. Nuxie is probably asking him to tone down the laugh!
