“ Nancy Oswald. What a wonderful woman! She was a fantastic Mother-in-law to me. Welcoming, and loving. She was a fantastic cook! I never tried so many different meals till Saturday dinners. Always the best cuts of meat from Zinks. And what a great baker. Blueberry pie was my favorite!
She had an incredible voice. Her singing the Ave Maria brought my dad and me to tears.
Nancy had a great sing songy way of saying “Hello” when she answered the phone. I loved to call just to hear her. Except for one time, when there was an incredibly horrific thunderstorm. Nancy always said you could be electrocuted talking on the phone during a storm. So when my husband (her son Joe) called during this lighting storm, she screamed “ITS A BAAAAAD STORM” and hung up! We all have laughed for years at how she sounded.
Thank you Molly for letting me visit with her. I love her very much, and will keep her in my daily prayers.
